Leading Warrior Athletes Toasted at Annual Banquet

Athletic prowess of El Camino College was recognized Thursday night as the semi-annual awards banquet was held in the Campus center.

Presentations were made to outstanding players in football, cross country, swimming, intramurals and the Women's Athletic Association.

Top award of the evening was the athletic scholar trophy presented to Don LaVoie by Meri F. Sloan, director of student personnel. A member of the track squad, LaVoie maintained a 3.6 average in 66 units completed, with a 4.0 average, or straight "A," in his final year.

WOMEN receiving special acclaim were Gail O'Rourke in volleyball and Carla Elger in basketball. Awards were made by Mrs. Joan Pollard, physical education instructor.

Intramural awards were given by Al Greenleaf, who presented trophies to Sam Hitchcock, outstanding football player; Jerry Thompson, faculty golfer; Woody Dunlap, most determined golfer; John Leifhelm, Spencer Beard, and John Kelly, student golfers; Jane Forrest, first place woman diving champion; David Lowe, first place male division diving champion, and to the Guys and Dolls and Kings Men and Women, coeducational volleyball leaders; Glenn O'Classon and David Vogel, track.

PAYING tribute to his Metropolitan Conference champions in cross country, Coach Ray Southstone presented the trophy for the outstanding player of the year to Richard Fernandez.

Football awards were made by Coach Norm Verry. Special acclaim was given to the most inspirational player, Martin Bumstead. Special trophies were awarded to Joe Costanza, defensive lineman; Paul Burleson, offensive lineman; Bob Pier, defensive back; Ron Veres received both the offensive back and most improved player trophy, and Dave Fisher received the outstanding all-around lineman trophy. The latter award, an El Camino blanket, was given by Al Goodman sports enthusiast.

VERES led a drive for contribution for Jim Hester, Warrior end currently recovering from serious injuries sustained on New Year's morning. He also announced that players, coaches, nurses and other affiliated team leaders had made donations toward a fund toward Hester's hospitalization expenses.

Water polo awards were made by Coach Roelf Kroon, whose squad won second place in the conference and fourth in Southern California. Most valuable honors were given Bill Franklin, Dan Culbert

Pony League Registration Scheduled

A registration for membership will be conducted by the North Torrance Pony League on Saturday from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. at McMasters Park, President Sam Bonafede announced this week.

Interested boys between the ages of 13 and 14 who desire to sign up must present birth certificates at the time of registration, he said.

Additional information may be obtained by calling Bonafede at DA 4-6089.

Prep Wrestlers to Grapple in Annual Camino Tourney Saturday

Wrestlers from 16 area high schools will converge on El Camino College's women's gym beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday to compete in the seventh annual high school invitational wrestling tournament.

Competition is expected to be among the keenest displayed in the years which the tourney has attracted young athletes from local schools.

ENTERED with a strong team again is Mira Costa High which has taken three of the six tournament championships. Redondo Beach and Morning-side each won a championship and shared another.

Preliminary matches will be staged from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m., the semi-finals between 2 and 5 p.m., and the finals beginning at 7:30 p.m.

EACH of Torrance's three public high schools are entered along with Aviation, Beverly Hills, Culver City, El Segundo, Hawthorne, Inglewood, Lawndale, Lennox, Leuzinger, Mira Costa, Morningside, Redondo, and Santa Monica.

Leading contenders for local schools include Gilbert Gereg of Torrance in the 106-pound class who was third in last year's tourney at 95 pounds and has lost only one match this year.

EARL YANASE, defending champ, is Torrance's hope in the 115-pound class and North's Mike Hanchett, third last year, will be trying for the upset.

At 123 pounds, North's Felix Evillar is given dark horse chance to spoil Sterling Boyd's chances for Morningside.

Bob Marlietta at 130 will take the North hopes against a pair of strong wrestlers from Inglewood and Aviation. Bill Harrington of Inglewood is undefeated and George Granby of Aviation has one loss.

DON DALBRICK of Torrance is rated the choice of the 141-pound division, while Mike Irvine of Torrance, a runner-up last year, is expected to push Aviation's John Sandling in the 168-pound class.

One of the top events will see South's Dave Birmingham, undefeated heavyweight, matched with Dennis Smith of Redondo. Smith was Bay League champ last year and runner-up in the ECC tourney. Birmingham has pinned all opponents this year.

Admission is 50 cents per session or $1 for all three.

Major League Hockey at Sports Arena

Southern California sports fans will have another chance to see major league hockey, when Jack Dempsey brings the Cleveland Barons and Vancouver "Canucks" hockey clubs to the new Los Angeles Sports Arena for two games, Wednesday and Thursday nights, February 1st and 2nd.

Dempsey successfully sponsored the two meetings last September between the Toronto Maple Leafs and the Boston Bruins at the Sports Arena, and promises the same brand of exciting ice games between Vancouver and Cleveland, both tops in their leagues, the West Coast and American leagues respectively.

Hockey fans of the Nineteen Forties will be glad to see an old favorite of the Los Angeles Monarchs, Cal Stearns, on the Baron's team. Cal is in charge of ticket sales for his team, but the young-old war horse dresses for every game and once in awhile gets into the game for a couple of minutes of play. He is as popular with the Barons as he was here, when he was the greatest "center lineman" in the Western League.

Fog is made up of water droplets so small that it would take 7,000,000,000 of them to make one teaspoonful of water.
